

Cookie Policy for millenniumbcp.mo

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are sent by the websites with relevant information and stored on your computer.

What are cookies used for?

Cookies are used to manage websites, increasing their efficiency, sending information to the webmasters and/or running the user sessions. Cookies also enable user recognition and fine tuning the navigation to the user's preferences and interests, to improve the user's online experience.

Why does Macao Branch use cookies on its websites?

Macao Branch uses cookies to manage the user's navigation, and this management can be carried out by Macao Branch website or by external entities for statistical purposes. Millennium bcp's website uses cookies for several purposes:

- Authentication - to recognise the user during the session.
- Security - to help the security resources and to find malicious activities.
- Preferences and services analysis - to record the language chosen by the user and to customise the user's navigation on the website.
- User statistics - to provide anonymous statistical data for website usage, such as the website from where the user came, visited pages, number of visitors and software used by the customer.

By opening Macao Branch website you consent to the use of cookies.

Controlling and blocking cookies

Most browsers allow you to block or restrict cookies using the settings. Yet to block cookie usage can make difficult to navigate and, ultimately, prevent you from logging on to Macao Branch website.